

Looking for a professional presence on the web?

More and more agents taking their business online as they realize consumers 50 and older increasingly expect any serious business enterprise to have a web site that illustrates the functions they perform.

SMS has pre-packaged consumer web sites available for our agents offering multiple senior product pages with relevant content, including quote request forms for LTC, Medicare Supplement, Medicare Advantage and Medicare Part D, Life, Dental, Travel and Annuities.

Packages range from an extremely competitive \$75 annual fee for basic website to more elaborate options for web savvy agents.

We even have options for agencies looking for an online resource they can give their agents. The tools available will imitate the tools and resources you find at www.SeniorMarketSales.com, but without the SMS branding.

Take advantage of our technology for a fraction on the cost you would expect!
